

Hebrews: Mid-Study Review

The purpose of this study is to review “where we are” in Hebrews, before we get further into the study.

Who wrote the Book? Who are the possibilities? Why?

When was the book written? How do we know?

Who was the book written to?

What are the two “key themes” of the Book?

Who is Jesus presented as being “better than”?

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____

What makes Jesus better these?

Why does the writer encourage the Hebrews to “go on to perfection”?

How is Jesus likened to Melchizedek?

If Jesus is a Priest like Melchizedek, what must have changed?

What are the characteristics of the New Covenant?

Homework:

Read Chapter 9 in preparation for next week.
